"Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two edged sword in their hand;" Psalms 149:6

Dear Praying Brethren,

As Christians we have something worthy of emotion. Often times I'm amazed at how people act like a wild Indian in public during a baseball or football game, and then suddenly transform into a wooden one as soon as they fasten themselves to the church pew. Is it a fear of appearing Charismatic or is it merely that they are full of the devil and have a dead heart in regards to the things of God? The religions of this world have nothing to offer their members and no reason to express their emotion through song. Because of Jesus Christ we have a new song in our heart that should be heard by both the saved and lost. We were very blessed to have Happy Valley Baptist Church, in Somerset, Pa., offer their sound equipment to make a recording of our boys. It is such a blessing to hear kids sing because they are genuine.

While passing out tracts in a store and praying for an open door to witness, the Lord directed my attention to a young man sitting on a bench. A few minutes into witnessing to this young fellow a young lady walked up to him and stood by as to imply for his departure. These most pestilent satanic diversions of people, ringing phones, cars pulling into the driveway, dogs suddenly barking, etc. are at times very aggravating and disheartening. You can visually see the concentration of the hearer broken as he or she is distracted. When he informed her that she could "go on" and he would catch up with her a little later, a quick prayer of gratitude went up. Rather than use her as an alibi for his escape he continued to listen and shortly thereafter called upon Jesus Christ to be his personal Savior. Glory! 'Herb' chose life rather than death; praise the Lord.

While through Maryland, New York, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, and Delaware this month we've noticed one increasingly common occurrence... American Muslim girls. While making a purchase at a store my wife left a young lady a Chick Tract titled, "Allah Had No Son." These are not Arab Americans I'm speaking of but rather naïve Caucasian young ladies that think it's "cool" or "the in thing" to be Muslim now. A brother in a church informed me that his granddaughter (In America) had recently, in a very vocal manner, converted to Islam. Brethren, if you're going to reach Muslims, the best place is really on your turf...America. In Indonesia such bold Chick Tracts are not an option, but rather a much more subtle and slow approach will be required. The Islamic garb in America has not diminished since 9/11 nor their aggressive nature. The Church should be willing to open their mouth with equal or superior boldness in order to reach these deceived souls before it is everlastingly too late. P.S. We will be sending a copy of the boys singing to each of our supporters; for anyone else that would like to have a CD please contact Jennifer at jenjaggy@yahoo.com or 850-341-6078 voicemail.

Looking for that blessed hope,

In Christ,

The Jaggy Family
